

LEGIONNAIRES SAIL ON MISSION OF GOOD WILL

American War Veterans Will Revisit Historic Landmarks as Guests of France

(By International News Service)
NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—With the banner of the national commander of the American Legion fluttering at her masthead, above the flags of all nations, the liner George Washington sailed from New York this morning, bearing a party of 250 Legion members, who will visit old landmarks at the official invitation of the French government.

The Legion party is headed by John G. Emery, national commander, and among the delegates from all states and representing every arm of the service are Franklin D'Olier, and Henry D. Lindsley, past national commanders.

CHERBOURG GOAL

A direct passage will be made to Cherbourg, where officials of the French government and a color guard from the American forces in Germany will greet the Legion party. President Millerand and Premier Briand will receive the tourists in Paris, and Marshal Foch will join them in Flirey, where a monument will be unveiled, a token of esteem to America, given by the citizens of liberated Lorraine.

Cablegrams from Legion men already in France assure the pilgrims that the French are prepared to do their utmost to entertain the representatives of their former brothers-in-arms.

DEDICATE STATUE

At Blois, the Legionnaires will attend the dedication of the statue of Joan of Arc, presented to the French city by the Joan of Arc committee of New York city. At Verdun, the party will spend a night in the famous citadel, and at Rheims they will take part in the ceremony surrounding the presentation by President Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia University, of the 3,000,000-franc gift of the Carnegie Foundation to the Rheims municipal library.

At Chateau-Thierry the Legion party will witness the laying of the cornerstone of the "Pont Roosevelt," which will replace the wrecked bridge across the Marne, defended by American machine gunners.

The visit is expected to do much to promote the interests of the Inter-Ally Veterans' Association, designed as a small but effective "league of nations." This was a project initiated by the late F. W. Galbraith, jr.

PRESIDENT FREE OF STATE CARES

(By International News Service)
LANCASTER, N. H., Aug. 4.—An unopened book in a small, brown leather case lies today on a desk in the Mt. Prospect lodge of Secretary of War Weeks, and it tells the tale of President Harding's vacation here.

The unopened volume is the White House code book, containing the code used in all messages which relate to official business. The book is unopened, for there has been no official business.

President Harding, besieged on all sides and at all times when he is in Washington, is enjoying the novelty of being left entirely to do just what he pleases without unnecessary business being laid before him. The members of the cabinet apparently have decided to let their chief have his well earned rest, for thus far they have not felt called upon to ask the President to lay aside his vacation recreations for affairs of state.

SLUGGED AND ROBBED
WOOD RIVER, Ill., Aug. 4.—Three unmasked bandits early today held up Tommy Felaido, postal messenger, slugged him into insensibility and robbed him of three mail pouches, one of which is said to have contained between $40,000 and $65,000 in currency, consigned to the Standard Oil company's refinery here, from the St. Louis Federal Reserve bank.

MEXICO WANTS DEMPSEY
MEXICO CITY, Aug. 4.—The Mexican government will turn pugilistic matchmaker if plans under contemplation today go through. The government wants to arrange a fight between Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion and former Champion Jack Johnson as part of the centennial celebration in September.

GAME OLD SPORT

VANCOUVER, B. C.—"Dad" Quick was welcomed by the habitués out at the race track recently. For the first time in a hundred years or so, he missed an opening day. He was too busy to go, having to complete a saddle for one of the jockeys. For, although he will be 101 years old next October, "Dad" still works away in his little saddlery shop to which came orders for racing saddles, his specialty, from as far away as Australia and Brazil.

"Dad" Quick was born in England just a few months too late to count George III among the sovereigns he might have met. He migrated to the United States about the time they put the first passenger train on the rails in England, and he helped Elias Howe in 1844 to make the first six sewing machines the world ever saw. Not being much over 40 years of age when the Civil War broke out, he enlisted and fought for the North.

A rolling stone, he has followed the ponies all over North America, finding his way here from San Francisco a few years ago.

ADVENTISTS HEAR CONVERTED JEW AT LECTURE

Elder F. C. Gilbert, a converted Jew, delivered an address to a large audience at the Seventh-Day Adventist church last night. He is one of the big men of the church, and has been lecturing at the camp meeting, which closed on Sunday at Alhambra.

Elder Gilbert, in his address, illuminated a problem that has puzzled the world, namely, "Why So Few Jews Have Accepted Christianity." There are fewer than 100 Jews who have forsaken the faith of Israel, declared Elder Gilbert.

"The reason we have not been able to convert more Jews," said the speaker, "is due to the way we have gone at the job. The Jew firmly believes that all Christianity offers him is 'keeping Sunday,' 'eating pork' and 'hating Jews.' He is the by-word of people who call themselves Christians. An American may steal a railroad, but if the Jew makes $5 on a suit of clothes, they say, 'you have been Jewed.' That is the Jew's conception of Christianity."

"For centuries, Gentiles did not believe in the Old Testament," continued Elder Gilbert, "while the Jew had no faith in the least in the New Testament. Is there any wonder that Jew and Gentile have never been able to get together on religion? When we adopt the right methods in trying to convert the Jew, we will succeed better."

"Don't call a Jew a sinner or unholiness. He knows nothing but 'clean' and 'unclean.' Never mention missionary to him. He has been brought up to regard the missionary as a 'religion stealer.' In Bulgaria and Roumania, children are stolen by people who call themselves 'missionaries,' and the 'cross' is branded upon the child's arm, so that it will be known as a Christian. Don't mention the cross to the Jew; he has seen the priests carrying the cross and glorifying that so many Jews have been killed and bewailing the fact that there are no more Jews to slaughter. We who live in this country have little conception of what it really means to the Jew to brush up against people who call themselves Christians, in some of the old countries."

SHEPARD RETURNS AND BUYS HOUSE

A Jud Shepard, formerly of Glendale, but now of Compton, has purchased a five-room residence on Central avenue between Elk and Lomita, and expects to return to Glendale to live. This place was sold through the agency of Willard N. Bott, 106A East Broadway.

BABE RUTH ON EDGE
NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Babe Ruth must hit a home run today to keep up with his 1920 record. His thirty-eighth homer came on August 2 and his thirty-ninth on August 5. If he fails to hit a homer today or tomorrow, he will fall behind his record.

SPURGIN LOCATED
MARFA, Tex., Aug. 4.—Warren C. Spurgin, absconding president of the Michigan Avenue Trust company, of Chicago, has been located in Chihuahua City, Mex. His arrest is expected momentarily by the Mexican authorities.

BRYAN IS IN ACCORD WITH HARDING ON PEACE IDEA

Commoner Sounds Democratic Tocsin for the Campaign of 1924

(By International News Service)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 4.—The world should look hopefully forward to President Harding's proposed disarmament conference, according to William Jennings Bryan, erstwhile secretary of state in the cabinet of former President Woodrow Wilson.

"Those who have been hoping and praying for universal peace," declared Bryan, while here on a tour of the west, "have more reason than ever to be hopeful today. President Harding's proposed peace conference, if successful, will be the greatest gathering in centuries. The peace conference at Paris ended one war. This conference may end all wars."

LIQUOR QUESTION

When shown headlines in a local newspaper detailing the capture of two large whiskey stills, Bryan declared prohibition has come to stay. "Prohibition is permanent," he declared emphatically. "Before prohibition went into effect carloads of liquor were shipped into the cities, hauled by drays to saloons on prominent corners, and displayed alluringly on the shelves and in windows."

"Now liquor is brought in handbags at night by bootleggers, who sneak through the alleys. That is some change. Where the law is not enforced it is mainly because the enforcing officers are not in sympathy with the law. An officer who sits down and listens to a debate between his appetite and his oath of office, before starting on a raid, is apt to arrive too late. It is something like allowing horse thieves to elect a sheriff."

"Besides those who aren't willing to cut out their own supply, we have those who are crooked; but we have the same problem to deal with in enforcing all laws. Many automobiles are stolen, but no one suggests that the law against automobile thefts be repealed."

DEMOCRATIC CHANCES

Has the Democratic party a chance to "come back"? he was asked. "Indeed, it has a very good chance to again gain control of the administration," he asserted emphatically.

"The reaction against the Republicans has already set in," declared Bryan. "It is possible for the Democrats to gain control of the next congress if they will stand on the side of the people on all questions."

"The Democrats should select a progressive man in every district now represented by a Republican and put him to work discussing public questions in his district, with a view to winning the next congressional election; not a man who will make a bid for the vote of the underworld, but a man—or a woman—who will appeal to the consciences of the voters as well as to their judgments, to women as well as to men—a man or a woman who will represent the masses instead of the profiteers and privilege hunters."

CALLED TO SICK, PRIEST VANISHES

(By International News Service)
COLMA, Calif., Aug. 4.—A party of searchers headed by Constable S. A. Landini left here today in automobiles to search the roads near Pedro Mountain for trace of Father Patrick E. Healin, pastor of the Holy Angels church of this place, who has been mysteriously missing since Tuesday night.

According to his housekeeper, the priest was asked by a stranger to accompany him to give the last sacrament to a dying relative. Father Healin left with the man in his automobile, and has not been seen since. The searchers today were proceeding on the theory that the auto may have gone off one of the dangerous mountain road turns, killing both of the occupants.

DAIRYMEN IN TROUBLE
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 4.—The Indiana manufacturers of dairy products and thirty-eight members of the organization throughout the state are named defendants in a suit brought by the state department charging a combination in restraint of trade.

DANTE'S BIRTHDAY

WASHINGTON. — President Harding, Vice-President Coolidge, Cabinet members, diplomats and distinguished citizens will join here on October 3 in observing the six hundredth anniversary of the death of the great Italian poet, Dante Alighieri.

The exercises will be held in the auditorium of the National Museum and addresses will be delivered by the Italian and French Ambassadors, Professor Charles H. Grandgent, of Harvard University, will read a paper on the significance of the works of Dante.

President Harding, the Vice President, Secretary of State Hughes, Ambassador Jules Jusserand of France; Ambassador Juan Riano y Gayangos, of Spain, high officials of the Catholic Church, members of Congress and others are members of an honorary committee on arrangements.

LOCAL MILITIAMEN TO HOLD DRILL THIS EVENING

Members of the Fifth Separate Company of National Guard will hold their regular weekly drill on the High School athletic field tonight at 7:30. The drill work will consist chiefly of close order formations.

An effort will be made at future drills to bring the balance of the company, who were not at the Yosemite encampment, up to the standard of those who received the two week's training there. This section of the company is drilling exceptionally well, according to Capt. Watson, and it remains to whip the rest of the organization into shape.

No definite plans are being made for the immediate future pending the reorganization of the Guard into two companies to be designated as Company M and Headquarters Company. An order for the federalization of the new company is expected at an early date.

EVERS, CUB CHIEF, SAID TO BE ILL

(By International News Service)
CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Officials of the Chicago Cubs maintained silence today regarding reports that John Evers is to be deposed as manager and Bill Killefer, veteran catcher, appointed to succeed him. No specified denial of the report has been made by Cub officials. The only statement forthcoming was the statement by President William L. Veeck that Evers is ill. Killefer is handling the club in the absence of Evers. Whether a change is made now or not, it is considered certain that a new manager will handle the Cubs next year.

FAIR COMMITTEE MEETING TONIGHT

Industrial committees of the various cities of the San Fernando valley, which are to participate in the San Fernando Fair and Market in September, will meet tonight at 7:30 at the offices of the Chamber of Commerce, in Burbank, to discuss plans relative to their part in the fair.

T. B. Sanders, chairman of the local industrial committee, will be present at the meeting. He stated this morning that it is probable that space will be allotted to the various exhibitors tonight.

POLICE AFTER SMALL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 4.—The city police went into action today for the first time in the "passive pursuit" of Governor Len Small, of Illinois. A detail of policemen were under orders to watch each incoming train for the governor. They were not specifically instructed to arrest him, but were instructed to notify the sheriff of the governor's arrival.

AIRSHIP FLYING DATE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The ZR-2, the United States' latest airship, will sail from England for Lakehurst, N. J., on August 25, it was announced at the navy department today. The flight of the ZR-2 across the Atlantic to its permanent home is expected to take only two days.

RUSSIA STILL MUM

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The state department was still without advice today as to whether soviet Russia has complied with the demand for release of the Americans held prisoner in Russia.

CITY COUNCIL POSTPONES ACTION ON APPOINTMENTS

Mayor Robinson Asserts T. W. Watson Will Be Hard Man To Beat for the Office of City Manager—Other Incumbents Declared To Be Efficient

The appointment of a city manager under the new charter will not be taken up at the meeting of the City Council tonight, according to Mayor Spencer Robinson today. The opening of bids for the sewer will be the main feature, he said.

The matter of appointing a city manager, along with other city employees, was postponed today in order that all applicants for the positions might be interviewed, particularly those desiring the city manager job. Reappointment of T. W. Watson was indicated as a probability.

"The Council has only the good of Glendale in view," said Mayor Robinson, "with that idea, it was announced that applications for appointive positions would be received. They have been filed. If there are any applicants who can show that they are better and more efficient men than those we have, the Council, for the benefit of Glendale, will employ them. It is only fair that, having announced applications would be received, we talk with the candidates and allow them to present their credentials and records."

WATSON HARD TO BEAT

"But I will say this: it would require a mighty efficient man to beat Tom Watson, for city manager. Yes, sir, there would be many monuments of Tom Watson's work left in Glendale, should he leave."

"Then, it would take good candidates to defeat our city attorney and our fire chief and our police chief for re-appointments. I do not believe the City Council will make any decisions on any of the appointments for several weeks."

EXIT "YELLOWBACKS"

COLUMBUS. — "Dare Devil Dick" and his breath-taking feats no longer engage the attention of Young America, according to booksellers.

"When little Johnny feels like reading a dime novel nowadays, he goes to a picture show for almost the same price and there sees things which even the old-fashioned dime novel would blush to have between its gayly-covered backs," was declared.

The old "thriller," which delighted the youth of another age and has been the solace of such distinguished men as former President Woodrow Wilson and former Senator George F. Hoar, of Massachusetts, seems to have completely departed from the field of fiction, according to authority.

At one stand it was said that the movie magazines now command the greatest popular following, although there is a good demand for detective stories, but the Wild West stuff—you get that in the movies.

MRS. LANTERMAN IN AUTO SMASH

An automobile operated by Mrs. M. H. Lanterman of Homewood, La Canada, collided late yesterday afternoon with a truck driven by J. Imakawa, of 1615 Central avenue, Eagle Rock. Mrs. Lanterman was driving along the street behind Imakawa, who stopped so suddenly that it was impossible for her to steer clear of his machine. The collision took place at the intersection of Broadway and Brand boulevard.

CHOLERA SERIOUS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The seriousness of the cholera epidemic in soviet Russia was emphasized today when advices were received in official quarters, showing that there were 47,779 cases reported between January 1 and July 15.

"OLD MILL" BURNED

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—The "Old Mill" was destroyed, the scenic railroad partially burned and other concessions damaged, in a fire which swept the Ocean Beach amusement park early today.

One of the subjects being considered in connection with the re-appointment of City Manager Watson under the new charter, is an increase of salary. He has been receiving $290 a month. He asks $400. City managers in the average city receive as high as $15,000. Pasadena is paying $7000 a year, it is understood.

"I told the council that I believed I had graduated after eight years' study in the only school of city management," explained Mr. Watson today, "and that I thought I should receive compensation now as a professional city manager."

JOB IS ABSORBING ONE

"In looking back over the city affairs, I find that the office of city manager has been absorbing because of the rapid growth of the city. Years ago, I was a nurseryman, and was elected a city trustee. The city had no money in the treasury and was not able to borrow any, so we trustees signed our personal notes to start the city. After that, we were paid little or nothing for our services for six years. Then I was elected president of the Board of Trustees, and became so interested in the work of conducting the affairs of the city that my business began to be a side issue. Finally, I had to admit that I should have to give it up, unless something was done. So the office of city manager was created, and I was appointed. That was eight years ago last May. Since taking the office, I have gradually dropped all business and lived with the city as it grew from a population of 4000 to its present 20,000. For the last four years, I have devoted myself exclusively to Glendale's affairs, as it was necessary to do so to keep up with the city."

ARMISTICE DAY FOR CONFERENCE

(By International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The assembling of the disarmament and Far East conference in Washington, on Armistice day, November 11, the date first suggested by President Harding, and later, officially proposed to the world powers, became virtually assured today, when Great Britain notified the United States that any date agreeable to Washington is agreeable to London.

CANINE BITES BOY; ANIMAL IS KILLED

The eight-year-old son of G. H. Horn, 201 Arden street, was bitten late yesterday afternoon by a dog, which was unlicensed and running wild. The police department, when notified, sent an officer to the scene, and the dog was killed, not, however, before he had bitten another animal. The animal that was bitten is now in the Glendale dog pound.

Dr. Eekles, Glendale's health officer, says there is every possibility that an order will be made soon that all dogs in Glendale that are permitted to run at large shall again be muzzled.

C. E. KIMLIN RETURNS

C. E. Kimlin, business manager of the Glendale Sanitarium, and Dr. H. G. Westphal, medical supervisor of that institution, returned Wednesday evening from San Francisco, where they attended the Efficiency commission of the Seventh-Day Adventists' hospital association.

Plans and methods and economical measures for the operation of the various hospitals were considered.

PACKER HOME ROBBED

Mrs. Stephen Packer is missing a cameo ring, set with a diamond, a Swiss wrist watch and a diamond ring, all valued at more than $200, which were stolen from the Packer residence, 362 Riverdale drive, Monday night.

NURSES' GRADUATION

The exercises of this year's graduation class at the Glendale Sanitarium will be held in the Seventh-Day Adventist church, at California and Isabel streets, on August 15, at 8 o'clock. This year's class of nurses numbers fifteen.

MERGER OF VALLEY AUTO DEALERS IS ACCOMPLISHED

San Fernando Association Joins San Gabriel Trade Organization

Consolidation of the San Fernando Valley Auto Dealers Association and the San Gabriel Auto Trades Association under the latter's name was effected last night at a meeting of both organizations at the salesrooms of the Ford Agency on Broadway. The consolidation brings the Glendale association in affiliation with the entire motor trades interest of the valley, on a par with Pasadena, South Pasadena, Alhambra, San Gabriel, and with the strongest trade organization of its kind in the country, as the parent body.

The officers of the San Gabriel Auto Trades Association who assume jurisdiction are Joseph A. Moore, of South Pasadena, who is vice president of the California Automobile Truck Association and P. W. Battelle, secretary.

The San Gabriel association is divided into crafts, garagemen, tire dealers, battery agents, paint and top makers, and automobile dealers. Each craft holds shop meetings for the discussion of trade interests. An outing is held once a month by the association, at which matters of general interest are discussed, new members elected and relations with the general public harmonized.

Among the local automobile men who attended the meet were S. C. Parker of the Studebaker Agency, Mr. McClellan of Green & McClellan, H. W. Hopper, of the White Supply, Fred Hill, garageman, Randolph Doll, of Pfennig & Doll and Ray Galvin, of Tanner & Hall.

Ten representatives of the San Gabriel Association attended the meeting.

It is expected that the consolidation will give the local members considerable strength. Secretary Battelle of the San Gabriel Association will spend considerable time in Glendale in an effort to bring the local representation up to 100 per cent.

FIRST MEETING OF VALLEY CHAMBER

The first meeting of the associated Chambers of Commerce of the San Fernando valley, held last night at Van Nuys, was attended by nine secretaries representing various chambers throughout the valley. J. A. Rhoades was present from the local chamber.

The secretaries gathered at the home of U. E. McClary, secretary of the Van Nuys chamber, and discussed preliminary organization plans and steps that might be taken to advertise the valley. It is proposed that matters of general interest throughout the valley will in future be brought before the associated secretaries in conference.

Secretaries of the various chambers will meet monthly. The next meeting will be held September 7, at the home of J. A. Rhoades, in Glendale.

HURT IN COLLISION

An automobile driven by Charles R. Lund, of Glendale, collided with a car operated by D. Sydney Dent, of Los Angeles, late yesterday afternoon, the accident occurring on Isabel street between Harvard and Broadway. Mr. Dent and his parents, who were in the car with him, were slightly injured. They were taken to the Glendale Sanitarium by Mr. Lund, and their wounds dressed, after which Mr. Lund took them to their home in Los Angeles.

TOM LIPTON NERVY

GLASGOW, Scotland, Aug. 4.—Sir Thomas Lipton will make another effort in 1923 to lift the America's cup he announced here today. Sir Thomas said that a new yacht to be christened Shamrock V will be built to meet an American yacht. Sir Thomas said that the challenge will be sent to the United States next year.

PEACE "PAPER" READY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Attorney General Daugherty's report to President Harding recommending that a proclamation of peace with Germany be issued, is ready to be sent to the White House, it was learned at the department of justice today.

SINN FEIN PARLIAMENT

LONDON, Aug. 4.—Dail Eirreann (Sinn Fein parliament) has been summoned to meet August 16 to debate the Sinn Fein cabinet's decision on the English peace offer, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Dublin this afternoon.

GLENDALE VISITOR HOSTESS AT TEA

Miss Myrtle Hyland, who has been the guest for several weeks of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Vesper, of this city, entertained today with a luncheon in the Orange tearoom in Los Angeles. Her guest list included Mrs. A. E. Vesper, of Pasadena; Mrs. C. R. Vesper, of Los Angeles; Mrs. W. C. Hartson, of Monrovia; Mrs. Frank H. Vesper, her daughter, Mrs. E. R. Naudain and granddaughter, Lois Naudain, of Glendale, and Mrs. Emma Vesper, mother of the hostess.

Miss Hyland and her mother are leaving Saturday for La Jolla, to be gone until September 1, when they will depart for their home in Chicago. Miss Hyland is a business woman, and has held a responsible position for years with the Clayton F. Summey company, music publishers.

STREET LIGHTING FOR WOODLANDS

The Public Service department of Glendale is preparing for the extension of its lighting service farther up into the Verdugo Woodlands district. Rapidly the residence section is pushing up in that direction and the cry right now is "more light."

Two carloads of new poles have been received by the lighting department. These are now being shaved and painted. They will be used for the extension of the lighting service into the Verdugo district and also along Wilson, from the substation to Central avenue.

Sicily is practically a treeless country. In a journey of 150 miles across the island one cannot observe a single tree that would cut a ten-inch board.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It
Darkens So Naturally
Nobody Can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by moving the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

'Humanize' Is Slogan of Government Heads

By W. H. ATKINS,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The Government now has some shining lights in the role of "humanizers." Some of them deserve the beautifully-fashioned verbal bouquets showered upon them.

There's Will Hays. A Postmaster-General whose dignity is not so austere that he deigns to stoop and shake the withered hand of a poor but worthy scrub-woman occupying a lowly place on his payroll. Not a village cross-roads post office that has not felt the kindly touch of that masterful personality. He's sowing seeds of kindness and reaping remarkable dividends in raised efficiency in every end of the postal service.

There's Harry Daugherty. An Attorney-General who believes that justice tempered with mercy is the kind that makes the strongest appeal to the best in man or woman. Daugherty takes the view that most men are absolutely honest. He maintains there is good in all men, even in the worst of them. An unfortunate mistake by an offender does not stamp him as fit for the bow-wow. That's not the way with Daugherty. He may have to handle a crude product, and he's had a lot of samples passed up to him since he took over the Department of Justice. But it takes Daugherty, a wizard in human nature studies, to find the good in men that every one else has overlooked.

DAVID H. BLAIR

There's David H. Blair. When President Harding picked Blair to do one of the biggest jobs laid out for any man in the Government service he selected another great humanizer. Blair blows no trumpets. He makes no grandiloquent speeches, though he can make a cracker-jack speech on occasions.

This boss collector of Uncle Sam's revenues, after being in office a bare month, has all of the 20,000 men and women of the Internal Revenue Bureau behind him, and the reason is this:

When Blair took over the job the first thing he did was to call in the chiefs of the divisions and say about one dozen words. That's about all he said. Then he shook hands all around. Then he let everybody know that the latchstring of his office hung on the outside. No functionaries were to be allowed to block the path to Blair's office if they had a reasonable excuse for getting in.

But here's what got the revenue force. Blair's few words of greeting was a little story of a shortstop on Blair's home team who simply was a whirlwind and unbeatable, when he was backed up with proper support. He was a bad loser when this support was lacking. Blair likened himself to that shortstop. He intended to be a winner, but needed that support which he had a right to expect and demand. He's getting it, too, all along the line. That little baseball yarn was Blair's only speech by way of introducing himself, but it has gone the rounds of the Revenue Service from coast to coast.

HERBERT HOOVER

Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, is winning by his course as a consistent humanizer. Hoover probably sees more visitors than any other member of the Cabinet. It is not difficult to get an appointment with him, because Hoover has the keenest realization of the fact that his work now is public service, and his door is wide open to those who have a mission.

One of the first things that Mr. Hoover did when he entered the Commerce Department was to get closer to his thousands of employees, letting them all know that he was personally interested in them and that he would go the limit for them, but he wanted efficiency. Hoover began slashing into the "red tape" and knocking down precedents and weeding out waste and overlapping effort. There isn't an employee in the many bureaus under Hoover's control who does not feel a personal interest in his boss, because they know he has a genuine interest in them.

These are a few samples. Their number might be multiplied. But it is a fact that Washington has really opened its eyes at some of the whole-some innovations sprung by higher officials in their really sincere efforts to democratize the Government service and make employees feel that they are not just so many inanimate cogs in a great machine.

U. S. HAS DIVINE IDEAL--HARDING

(By International News Service)

LANCASTER, N. H., Aug. 4.—"America has a God-given destiny to fulfill, her people want an end to the causes of war and America's attitude is the hope of civilization," President Harding declared today in a brief speech made in the public square here.

"Under the eternal plan God works out, I believe no matter what betides today or what discourages tomorrow, we of America, have a God-given destiny to fulfill that nothing can prevent," the President declared.

LUCKY THIRTEEN REUNION IS HELD

Miss Vera MacPherson, who returned to Glendale after her school closed in Bear Valley, and Miss Alice Gray Beach, were hostesses last evening at a reunion of the Lucky Thirteen Club, at the MacPherson home, 605 North Central.

The guests of honor were Miss Gladys Hamilton, who has just taken a degree at the State University at Berkeley, and Mrs. Lorenzo Reitenberck, who is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Williams, 128 West Maple street.

This club was organized by high school graduates during the early days of the late war, and its members had very good times together. They have since been scattered, and it has been a long time since they have had a reunion. Their informal social evening, therefore, was very jolly. It closed with the serving of refreshments by the hostesses.

Club members present besides the guests of honor and the hostesses were: Mrs. Melvin West, Mrs. Harold Young, Mrs. Jennie McKelvie, Miss May Church, Miss Dorinda Haviland, Mrs. Noble Ripley, and Miss Laura Hibben.

ELECTRIC SUPPLIES ON VALLEY ROAD

That the Electric Supplies and Wiring Store, 1510 South San Fernando road, which recently opened, is now firmly established for business, was the announcement made by C. L. Brenkman, proprietor of the store, this morning.

A general restocking of electrical supplies and fixtures has enlarged the business and made possible a greater volume of trade. Mr. Brenkman accepts work for electrical wiring on a time basis and not by contract.

CLARK E. GODDARD DEAD

Clark E. Goddard of 517 West Park avenue, died suddenly last Monday in Arizona where he had gone a year ago for his health. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Anna Goddard; a son Levert, and a daughter, Mrs. Robert A. Oliver of this city. Mr. Goddard was 51 years of age and had been a resident of Tropic for a number of years. Levert left Tuesday for Cottonwood, Arizona, where the burial will take place.

CHURCH CHOIR SOCIAL

The members of the choir of the Central Avenue church will hold a social this evening at the home of Mrs. Harwood of East Cypress street.

METHODISTS WILL BURN MORTGAGE

The mortgage that has been standing against the Central Avenue Methodist church since its construction several years ago, will be burned on the evening of September 11, if the plans of the official board of that organization are carried out. At a meeting of the board Tuesday evening, plans looking to this end were formulated.

There is a debt of about $1500 standing against the church at this time, and it is this that the members are determined to remove. Ten working teams will be appointed by the pastor and the finance committee, and before the arrival of September 11, these teams will circulate through the valley and endeavor to raise the required amount by subscription. At the Tuesday night meeting, it was also decided to increase the insurance on the social hall, parsonage and garage about 50 per cent. At the session's close, refreshments were served by Rev. and Mrs. V. H. Brink.

TROPICO POTTERIES ENLARGING PLANT

Business has been so good during the past few months for the Tropico Potteries, Inc., whose plant is located in the southwestern part of Glendale, that it has been found necessary to treble the fitting room accommodations. The finishing touches are being put on a room 75 by 300 feet, and this is being equipped with all modern appliances. Two sets of double tracks are being laid from the kiln room to this fitting compartment, a distance of about 200 feet.

Every department of this establishment is gradually being added to, and each succeeding week, new machinery is installed and put in operation. A large garage, to hold twelve machines, is being constructed for the accommodation of the workmen. New additions are being made to the working force almost daily, and at this time about 200 persons are on the payroll.

MISS HAZEL MYERS ENGAGED TO MARRY

Miss Hazel Myers sprung a surprise on her friends in the K. K. K. Club, when it met at her home, 1316 South Central avenue, Tuesday night. Accompanying the place cards, when the refreshments were served, were small silk bags containing an announcement of her engagement to Robert Ford, son of Rev. E. E. Ford. The announcement also contained an intimation that the wedding would take place in September.

Congratulations were showered upon the young woman, and the program was suspended to discuss the news.

Miss Myers is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lytleton Myers. She and her fiancé are very popular in social circles in this city, particularly in the Baptist church. Mr. Ford is connected with an automobile agency in Los Angeles.

Club members present at the gathering were: Misses Margaret McPherson, Miriam Rich, Della Young, Ruth Sanford, Marian Grigg, Alice Lookabaugh, Catherine Taylor, Mrs. Harlow Harrison and the hostess, who was assisted by her mother.

HONEY COMPANY IS EXPANDING PLANT

The Blossom Bee Honey Company, 1501 South San Fernando road is planning a change of quarters at an early date to meet a business which has expanded beyond anticipations during the past few months. A new building at 349 West Eulalia street will be constructed to cope with the growing trade.

According to John L. Vincent, who is a partner in the firm, retail trade will not be done in the future, except in a small way, through the sales room. The plan of the company is to branch out, entirely into a wholesale business. A considerable trade that now exists with retail merchants through the middle west will be further developed.

LADIES' AID PICNIC

Members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist church will hold their annual picnic tomorrow at Echo Park, where the basket lunch will be served a little before noon. Husbands and brothers are invited. It is in charge of Mrs. C. H. Starkey, president of the organization.

PARENT-TEACHERS TO MEET

A special call has been issued for a meeting of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations, August 10, at the home of the president, Mrs. John Robert White, 347 North Orange street. The meeting will take place at 2:30 p. m.

MERCHANTS' SHOW ENTRIES CLOSED

Practically every booth for exhibition purposes at the Merchants' Exposition, to be held here the latter part of this month, has been engaged, according to H. Elmo La Breque, manager and director, who stated this morning that the few spaces still remaining as unlisted on the blue print of the big tent were being held for merchants who are certain that the houses they represent will purchase the space.

The Tropico Potteries company, which secured a booth this morning, will have both a utilitarian and art display at the exposition. The C. J. Hatz Woman's Wear store will have many garments pleasing to women, on exhibition at the fashion revue.

Merchants who have subscribed for space in the exposition during the past few days, include:

PREMIUM LIST OF FAIR IS AMENDED

Since the printing of the premium list for the San Fernando Valley Fair which will be held at San Fernando September 13-18, a change has been made in the personnel of the Glendale Committee for the Woman's Department. A slip bearing the names of the present committee has been printed and is being pasted into the premium lists which are being given out by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, as follows:

Child Welfare, Dr. Caroline Paine Jackson, 515 North Kenwood, Tel. 655-J.

Culinary, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, 415 South Central, Tel. 2126-W.

Needlework, Miss Eva Daniels, 324 West Colorado, Tel. 911-M.

Art, Miss Alice Frank, 1558 East Wilson, Tel. 747.

Plants and Flowers, Mrs. C. W. Houston, 440 West Myrtle, Tel. 457.

General Chairman of Arts for the Woman's Department, Mrs. Ella Richardson, 317 North Brand, Tel. 1559-J.

BINNS' FUNERAL IS AWAITING CHILDREN

Arrangements for the funeral of H. C. Binns of 110 East Maple street, whose sudden death Tuesday night was a shock to his many friends, have not yet been made. In the meantime, efforts are being made to get in touch with his children. His son, H. C. Binns, who left with his wife and family Monday for a hunting and camping trip in the north, was intercepted at San Jose, and is on his way back to Glendale. A daughter, Mrs. W. J. Harris, who left with her husband and children by auto Tuesday for Seattle, with the intention of going from there to Alaska, has not yet been reached. The California Auto Clubs of the north and south have been posted and it is expected the travelers will soon be located, as Mr. Harris is a member of the organization. Not until all the sons and daughters have been heard from will the date of services be announced.

CHI-NAMEL PAINT IS FALL NOVELTY

T. B. Reavis of the Triangle Paint Store, Central avenue and San Fernando road, recently secured the exclusive agency in Glendale for Chi-Namel products and is now devoting a section of his store entirely to this product.

Business, which was on the decline early in July, is now picking up satisfactorily, according to Mr. Reavis. Depleted stocks of paint goods have been replenished and the establishment will continue business under the "Glendale Dollar Value Paint Store" slogan.

SHIPMENT OF FORDS DUE TO ARRIVE

The Glendale Ford Agency expects the arrival of a large shipment of Ford touring cars today. This will consist of two complete cars of machines. All of the autos in one car have been disposed of, while most of those in the other have been spoken for. Those remaining unsold will be delivered as rapidly as ordered. Four cars were delivered by this concern Tuesday, of which two were touring cars, one a sedan and the other a coupe.

COUNTRY HEALTH IS OVERRATED, SAYS MEDICAL CHIEF

American Association Presi- dent Declares Theory Is Exploded by Statistics

(By International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Don't send your children to the country if you want them to be healthy—cities now produce the most virile men.

Thus does Dr. Hubert Work, First Assistant Postmaster-General and newly-elected president of the American Medical Association, explode the old fashioned theory that a greater chance for health prevails among the green fields, the waving corn fields and the wooded hills of the rural districts than on the asphalt pavements and crushed playgrounds of the big city.

It is not that the strenuous and sometimes endless tasks of life on the farm are not just as healthful as they ever were, but, says Dr. Work:

THREE DISTINCT REASONS

"The city affords more sanitary living conditions than the country," and he pointed out that there are three distinct reasons why city boys have a better chance for health than the country boy:

"In the first place, the living conditions are more sanitary, medical attention is more prompt, and there are greater medical facilities. Those are the three reasons."

Asked if the dirt and noise of the average American city afforded greater opportunity, with its fresh air, good food and other advantages, Dr. Work said:

"Statistics show that there is a greater proportion of healthy boys among the city groups than the country ones."

"There are more doctors in proportion to population in the city than in a farm community. There are 140,000 doctors in the United States, and over half of the are city physicians. This means that it is hard to get a doctor in the country. The farms are usually extensive and the doctor must lose much time in getting about."

HOSPITALIZATION FACTOR

"In the city there is a doctor convenient in almost every neighborhood, and the sick child may receive attention without delay. The doctor's proximity enables him to keep the child under close observation. The country doctor may be just as efficient and

Japs Fail as Baseball Fans; Too Polite to Yell

(By International News Service)

BERKELEY, Calif., Aug. 4.—The Japs lack one essential qualification to make them a nation of baseball players and fans.

They lack noise. They haven't learned to root, and their players fail to make themselves heard on the coaching lines.

This was the discovery made by the University of California baseball nine on its invasion of Japan, during which it won eight games and lost three. Said the California team captain:

"The American fan cannot imagine what baseball means in Japan. An average of something like 7,000 spectators attended each of the games, and throughout they never made the slightest sound. There was not one bit of rooting. There was not a cheer. It was a strange and peculiar experience, but this did not interfere with our crowd."

"We just went ahead and made all the racket possible. Our coaching must have been a revelation to the crowd, and just before our departure for home the Mayor of Yokohama, who was our host, observed that he and his fellow countrymen had been more than gratified at our demonstration, and he ended by saying:

"We in Japan believe that as we advance in the adoption of your Occidental sports that we will become more friendly. But before we Japanese fully master the good old American game we will have to learn to root and make the same racket that you boys make. I congratulate you all and thank you for your efforts and entertainment."

"And for the life of me I am not certain that the old gentleman was not indulging in sarcasm. We were royally treated, and the fact that we came from California did not seem to make the slightest difference. But, as I said before, the game of baseball played in silence is something that would not make a hit here."

SUPPLIES ARRIVE FOR CITY SCHOOLS

Supplies for the city school system arrived at the Intermediate school this morning, where they will be held for inspection, checking and distribution. All grammar schools of the city are now being put through the "house cleaning" process. A general overhauling will be made to put them in shape for the fall opening of school.

scientific; his education is no doubt practically the same, but he lacks the facilities of the city physician.

"That leads me to the third reason the city boy is healthier. There are greater hospital facilities here. And the children receive medical attention even in the public schools. Their mouths are clean. The attention given their teeth by the dentists of the school authorities is admirable. It must be realized that there is no more important item of good health than a clean set of teeth to masticate the food."

"Hospitalization is another matter that cannot be over-estimated. Many doctors have learned there is no better place to work and are prompt in advising patients to avail themselves of their facilities. But here again the country boy lacks."

Dr. Work believes that much of the movement from the country to the city can be attributed to mothers who realize that their children will be healthier in an urban community.

RESEARCH NURSES DEDICATE HOME

A housewarming party for members of the board of directors of the Glendale Research hospital, their wives and friends, celebrated last evening the opening of the new home for nurses in connection with the institution. Music, games and dancing provided a pleasant social evening for those present, the guests of honor being: Dr. and Mrs. John Avey, Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Young, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Teel, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. McNaughton, Drs. J. T. and A. Luccock, Rev. Salyards, house guest of the Teels, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nelson, Emil Kiefer and Gene Settles.

Mrs. G. H. Hornung, superintendent of nurses, was hostess, and was assisted by Mrs. Walter Trautwein, Miss Hilda Webber, Miss Wilma Whitmore, Miss Dora McKiffick, Miss Idella Westbrook, Miss Elizabeth Swendish, Miss Sadie M. McPherson, Miss Elizabeth Bowman, Mrs. Mabel Mann, Mrs. W. H. McMasters and Miss Olive Drake, dietician, who was responsible for the delicious refreshments served during the evening.

Before packing flowers for a long journey let them stand in water for a few hours.

GEORGIA BREEDS YOUNG PORTIAS

(By International News Service)

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 4.—When Miss Johanna Stollberg, eighteen, recently admitted here that she probably held a record in being the youngest law student ever to graduate from law school—anyhow, the youngest woman ever to receive a diploma entitling her to practice law, she started something.

Johanna had a classmate, also rather youthful and also of the "more deadly" species. She made herself known a few days later. She is Merrie Dorothy Feldman, also of Atlanta, also a graduate of the Atlanta Law School, and who modestly lays claim to seventeen summers, none of which you would suspect from her features.

Johanna wasn't much on talking about things legal. Not so Merrie Dorothy. Johanna works in an office where motion picture films are distributed and again Merrie Dorothy claims the honors. She works in a law office, from where she expects soon to be admitted to the bar. Both are going to take advance law work—probably at Columbia University in New York.

"If a woman's career interferes with her marriage," said Miss Feldman in answer to questioning, "by all means give up the career. I believe ambition for a career is admirable in a woman. Some can carry on a business career and take care of home life, too. Others cannot. For those who cannot there is only one thing to do—devote life to the home."

SECRETARY MELLON REVISES FIGURES

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The cost of running the United States government for the fiscal year of 1922, will be $4,550,000,000, according to revised estimates placed before the house ways and means committee today by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

He estimated that salvage and miscellaneous receipts would yield $350,000,000 of this amount, and customs $370,000,000, leaving $3,830,000,000 to be raised in taxes.

LEARNED RECEPTION PLEASING AFFAIR

The informal reception for Mr. and Mrs. Willard Learned, which followed the mid-week prayer service at the Christian church Wednesday evening, proved a very pleasing affair for the guests of honor, and about sixty of their friends, who welcomed the chance to congratulate them. They were also the recipients of a shower which included many useful and pretty gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Learned are leaving in September to attend the College of Missions in Indianapolis, and a year hence, will go to Central Africa, to a mission station on the Congo river, where the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Pearson, are already working. Until they leave for Indiana they will be at Oceanside, where Mr. Learned is acting pastor. Mrs. Learned is the daughter of Rev. J. W. Utter, who is a pioneer in Christian church work, and who founded the church in this city. He and his wife now live in Corona.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder
Bothers You, Drink Lots of Water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and

DANCE AT HOME OF D. RIPLEY JACKSON

A very pretty party was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. D. Ripley Jackson, at their home, corner of Brand boulevard and San Fernando road.

The honoree was Miss Grace Champlin, of Chicago, who is the house guest of Miss Ruth Waterman, of 520 North Brand.

Dancing was the chief diversion, for which a Victrola furnished the music, except when some of the guests substituted with orchestral instruments, viz, Zenith Smith, with the cornet and Brigham Bennett with the trap drum, accompanied on the piano by Delmar Wheeler.

There were also vocal numbers by the host and his son, Kenneth. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Following is the list of guests besides those already mentioned: Miss Margaret Mandaville, Miss Katherine Taylor, Miss M. Fisher, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. John Cornelson, of Hollywood; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fraser, of Hollywood; Mrs. Elizabeth Turner, of Honolulu; Harold Alexander and Bruce Denton.

RESERVOIR UNIT ALMOST READY

The reservoir which is being constructed by the Glendale Public Service department, at the entrance of Verdugo canyon, will be completed and ready for operation before September 1. However, it is the intention of the Public Service department not to connect this reservoir with the Glendale water mains before next winter.

The flood protection along the wash side of the reservoir has about been completed. This consists of 4-inch pipe columns 16 feet long, which support a strong wire mesh. Numerous large boulders are also being used in this work.

The booster pumping plant on the San Fernando road is now in operation. This is equipped with a 350 horse power electric motor and is capable of pumping 3000 gallons a minute.

COLORADOAN OPENS NEW REALTY OFFICE

A new real estate and insurance office has been recently opened at 1590 South San Fernando road by George E. Schram, formerly of Colorado. Mr. Schram expects to transact considerable business in the south end of the city, though he does not propose to confine his work entirely to that section.

THE KISSING WAGER

Greenwich village, which has produced some bizarre things of late years, now comes along with a "kissing king," a young man who is to start a trip across the continent on a wager that he can win a definite number of kisses from girls en route. The success of his undertaking depends altogether upon the modesty and good sense of the young women this unnamed adventurer accosts. He will ask them to kiss him and, perhaps, some of them will. Whether he gets the stipulated number and wins his wager is up to the girls, and it is hoped that they reject his impudent requests.

When a man sets out to kiss publicly any number of women under any pretext whatever, he leaves himself open to criticism, ridicule and condemnation. He may even be risking a sound thrashing from some of the young women or from their relatives and friends. Surely no young woman would feel complimented when approached for such a purpose, especially if she is given to understand that she is being employed as one among many to further the designing purpose of the man who would kiss her. It is recalled that some 23 years ago, during the Spanish-American war, a very courageous naval officer accomplished a brave feat in the sinking of a warship to block the exit of the Spaniards from a harbor. Following the act, which was lauded everywhere as one of remarkable heroism, Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson was kissed by many women throughout the country. It became a sort of fad among women; and Lieut. Hobson, a much younger man then, obliged them. That episode in the naval officer's career almost ruined him. He quit his promiscuous kissing and being kissed, however, left the navy and became a member of Congress. He never recovered entirely from his kissing campaign. When his name is mentioned today that part of his life is recalled, and not to his advantage. The Greenwich village youth probably has nothing to lose in his venture, and it is equally certain that the girls who live along his cross-country itinerary have absolutely nothing to gain from it.

AUTO ACCIDENTS

If you happen to be in an automobile accident do not talk too much.

Do not keep assigning different reasons which occur to you as a reason for the accident.

Statements of this sort may be used against you in case a lawsuit is started by the one whose car is damaged.

You are supposed to have your brakes in good running order, and you are expected to know how fast your car is going and about what distance it would take to make a stop at certain speeds.

When you are in an accident, get the time, the place, the names of those in the car and their addresses if you can and, by all means, take down the number of the license and the state where issued.

If there are any bystanders who saw the accident it is well to get their names and addresses, even though the car is not badly damaged.

Claims may be made later in court that more damage was done than really occurred.

Don't get excited and talk recklessly, for it may be used in court against you so keep your head cool and think twice before you speak.

Air Pocket: A hole in the air. Also the hip pocket that formerly contained a flask.

Rights: Those special privileges that may be obtained by force.

The best aid to repentance is the fear of being found out.

A man is never a shining example when he is lit up.

GRAVE AND GAY

The scholars had stumbled through their shade of the reading lesson and at last it came to little Harry's turn. He got on quite well until he came to the word "heirloom." The teacher, noticing his difficulty, helped him, and then asked:

"And do you know the meaning of this word?"

Harry shook his head.

"It means something that is handed down from father to son—a relic."

"Oh," said Harry, with a grin, "that is the funniest name I've ever heard for a pair of trousers."

John Jones had trouble with his car. He was several miles from home and alone, when something in the machine's inwards gave a loud clank and operations ceased. Putting on overalls and jumper, Jones went to work, and when he gave up two hours later, he was so smeared with oil and grease that one would have found it difficult to determine whether he was a Caucasian or an Ethiopian. Telephoning a garage to send and get his car, Jones started for home by trolley. At a transfer point he thought, for all his tribulations, of Mrs. Jones' Saturday box of candy and went into a drug store, where he bought the customary large box of costly brand. "There!" said a well-dressed woman who was in the store, to her equally well-dressed husband. "There! Did you see that poor mechanic buying a big, expensive box of candy for his wife or his girl? That shows you never can tell." And the husband, so chastened that he bought a five-pound box of the best the store afforded.

He—"I could dance on like this forever."

She—"Oh, I'm sure you don't mean it! You're bound to improve."

Mother—"No, Bobbie, I can't allow you to play with that little Kim boy. He might have a bad influence over you."

Bobbie—"But, mother, can I play with him for the good influence I might have over him?"

Mack—"Don't tell Miss Research that you can't live without her when you propose."

Jack—"Why not?"

Mack—"She's so dreadfully scientific that she'd refuse you just for the sake of the experiment."

WOMAN'S COZY CORNER

By JOSEPHINE FRANCE

Time and Money Savers

To Keep Ham Moist

A sheet of paraffin paper laid over the cut surface of a boiled or baked ham will keep the meat from drying out, so that it can be sliced smoothly.

Nourishing Dishes

One pound of white flour, rice, dried peas or beans, bread, corn meal or macaroni are nearly equal in nourishment. The addition of raisins, dates or figs to prepared dishes increases their nourishment.

Keeping Old Potatoes White

Let pared old potatoes lie in cold water at least an hour before boiling, then put in slightly salted boiling water, cook until done, put in colander and after sprinkling lightly with salt lay a folded napkin over them for a few minutes before serving. They will be dry and mealy. Half a cup of milk added to water in which old potatoes are boiled will make them much whiter and better.

"Steam Clean" Your Pans

Pans on which food has stuck and burnt can be easily cleaned without much scrubbing or scraping if inverted in a larger pan or over a pot of boiling water and left there for ten minutes or so. The steam softens the burnt substance so that it readily washes off. To scrape a pan means generally leaving a roughened surface that catches and holds the next food cooked in it, increasing the danger of scorching.

To Prevent Curdling

Custards, custard or bread puddings will not curdle if the dish containing them be set in a pan with a piece of writing paper fitted to the bottom of it, then half filled with boiling water. This cooks the egg mixture at a slow heat at an even temperature. It is the white of egg which causes the curdling or wheying, and if only the yolks are used a firm, fine-textured custard is assured.

Baking Economics

If there happens to be more waffle or pancake batter than you needed for breakfast, do not throw it away. Beat up one egg and some sugar. Add to the batter, and if too thin, also a little flour and maybe a pinch of baking powder. Put a small quantity in each gem cup, then a few berries or a tiny spoonful of jam, cover with more batter and bake.

The pie-crust trimmings and a bit of left-over pie dough may line and cover two or three gem cups or brown custard cups. Use any kind of fruit filling. Both of these concoctions make toothsome bits for children's lunches.

If there is not enough batter or dough to fill all the cups in a gem pan, be sure to fill the empty ones with water to prevent burning and discoloration of the utensil.

Pastry Shells

Bake pastry in or on the outside of muffin pans and fill these shells with jam, preserves, or well-sweetened stewed fruit. With or without the addition of whipped cream these form a delicious dessert. These shells may be filled with creamed chicken, creamed peas, or other creamed vegetables, adding an attractive dish for another meal.

Mark Pleats on Skirt

A pleated skirt of wash material will iron much more easily if in finishing the skirt the folds of each pleat are marked by a knotted thread in the hem. The knot will not be noticeable if the thread corresponds in color with the material.

Ham Hint

Take slices of fresh ham and place in a dish and cover with milk. Let stand for an hour or more. Most of the salt will fall to the bottom and leave the ham sweet, with just the amount of salt to make it delicious.

When Sewing

Make a paper cornucopia, hang it on your chair when sewing. Roll the paper up from one corner and pin up the tip. Drop into it all your loose threads. When through sewing throw the whole thing into the fire. This will save much time and keep your carpets and floors clean.

On Baking Day

Here is a great help to mothers on baking day if out of bread and near meal time. Take a piece of bread dough, roll and cut in squares and fry in hot grease. Will take place of bread and will be quite a change for the children.

Cleaning Up Easily

When making pies or cookies spread a clean sheet of wrapping paper on the dough board to roll the pastry out on. When through take the paper off and burn it. This saves the time and labor of scrubbing grease and flour from the dough board.

STUDIO NEWS AND GOSSIP

Trixie Friganza had the time of her olive ripe life the week of the Elks' Convention in Los Angeles. "Let me tell you, ho," said Trixie, "having your picture taken with an Elk isn't half so easy as it sounds, especially when the elk is a dead elk. Can you imagine choosing an elk that's been dead nineteen years, when there are these live Elks around?" inquired the vivacious lady, who is starring at the Orpheum this week. "Yes, sir, they wanted a publicity picture, and so they rounded up an elk in a museum or some place. He was mangy and motheaten, and the moths were mad when I hopped up. They had a home for life when I came along."

"I got one leg over, and some live Elk gamboling around and playing poker in the next room, were afraid they'd miss something, so they came in just in time to see me get hold of that old elk's antlers and pull 'em out by the roots. I was scared to death—expected the thing's legs to crumble under me any minute, he'd been dead so long, but he stood up, somehow, though awfully wobbly. I got frightfully dirty and dusty, but we got the picture, and I hope it'll do the live Elks some good."

"Oh, yes, and I forgot. These was a little girl elk standing by the old elk—I suppose it was his wife, and my heavens, but didn't she give me the glassy eye!"

American History in Serial

Universal is about to produce a serial which will upset motion picture traditions. It will be of eighteen connected chapters from American history, accurately depicted and with the guarantee that it will contain more dramatic punch than any artificially conceived plot. The story is called "Winners of the West." It was written by Fred Beebe and will feature Art Acord the cowboy star. "Winners of the West" is an animated account of the romantic trail-blazing trip of Captain John C. Fremont from Booneville, Mo., to Sutter's Creek, Calif., in 1848. Step by step the camera will follow the route taken by the famous soldier explorer and the screen will record the actual adventures which befell him as he neared the gold fields of California. It is likely that Laura LaPlante will play opposite Acord.

"Ropes" for Miss Dupont

Universal has also purchased "Ropes," one of the most-talked-of plays of the year. It will be used as a starring vehicle for Miss Dupont, when the new star has finished filming "The Rage of Paris." "Ropes" was the dramatic surprise of the year. It appeared as a one-act playlet in Harper's Magazine from the pen of Wilbur Daniel Steele. Afterward it was made into a full-length drama.

Rupert Hughes Enlists

Rupert Hughes, famous writer, will supply the titles for the anticensorship picture which Marshall Neilan will produce for the Public Rights League of America. Both Neilan and Hughes will donate their time and effort in the production of the film, which will be booked with theatre owners all over the country free of charge. The scenario for the picture is now complete, and was written by Mr. Neilan himself. The film will be a two-reeler and will present many prominent players in the cast.

Argentina Wants Bill Hart

Bill Hart has been asked to journey to the Argentine Republic in South America in order to act as master of ceremonies at a rodeo to be held during the first week in September at Quarez, a town located in the plains section of that country. According to the telegram received by Bill the roundup will be the largest ever staged in Argentina during the present century. The officials in charge, recognizing Bill's popularity among the Argentinians as the characterizer of plainsmen roles, seek him as a guest of honor and drawing card for the event. But Bill is not to be lured from the West Coast. He is now writing tales for the youth of the land and at the time trying not to hear the insistent calls for him to return to the screen. He has not made public the text of his reply to the telegram.

Ann Forrest to London

Ann Forrest is going to London to portray the leading role in a Famous Players-Lasky production of "Perpetua." Two weeks ago Ann's contract with the organization ended and, believing that her connection with the studio was a thing of the past, she bade goodbye to her cronies and prepared to enlist under the banner of another producing organization. Then Jesse Lasky decided she was just the person needed to enact the leading role in "Perpetua" and so to London she soon will go. Miss Forrest has earned the appointment. Fans will recall her excellent work as leading woman in several of George Melford's productions, such as "The Faith Healer," "A Wise Fool" and "The Great Impersonation."

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET
CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Liquidation by a leading commission house was a depressing factor in wheat at the opening today. The start was unchanged to 1/4 lower for September and 1/2 lower for December.

A small trade prevailed in corn with September 1/4 to 3/8 lower and December 1/4 higher to 1/2 off.

The market in oats was quiet with first prices unchanged to 1/4 lower for September and unchanged to 3/8 lower for December.

Weakness in grains and hogs encouraged selling in provisions and opening prices were lower.

Uncle Walt's Story

FOIBLES OF ANIMALS

"PETERSHAW has an extremely gentle driving horse," said the veterinary surgeon. "He has made the animal a member of his family for several years, and it was so gentle anybody could drive it. The other day

Petershaw made up his mind he would sell Dobbin, as he couldn't afford to buy breakfast food for him any longer.

A man who wanted a horse dropped around, and Petershaw hitched Dobbin up, and that fool horse just naturally ran away and the two men are going around on crutches. It's hard to understand such a thing, for there never was a gentler horse."

"There are several explanations," remarked the village parlor. "It is possible, even probable, that the horse understands everything Petershaw says, and when it heard him talking about selling, the noble animal put up a job to spoil the deal. Perhaps Dobbin has a strongly developed sense of humor, and thought such an escapade would be highly amusing, and we must admit that it was. I cannot imagine anything more humorous than to hitch up a perfectly gentle horse, and then have it act like a funnel-shaped cloud."

"There is no doubt that animals have a sense of humor. Unless we admit that, it is impossible to explain many things they do. I think the mule is a great jester. When a mule looks most innocent, he is most dangerous. You can tell when a horse is going to hand you a few sample heels as a testimonial of its esteem; it lays back its ears and switches its tail, and looks as vindictive as a rattlesnake. A reasonably active man can get out of the way when he sees a horse unlimbering its heavy artillery. But it's different with a mule. This highly sagacious animal will stand munching its fodder, every motion and every glance expressing peace on earth, good will toward men. The innocent bystander is saying to himself that he never did see such an amiable expression on an animal's face, and just then the gentle critter hands him a holiday assortment of feet, and when he recovers consciousness he can't find words that properly express his sentiments."

GLENDALE REPEATS SELZNICK REEL

Strong dramatic situations, magnificent settings and gorgeous gowns are the outstanding features of the Selznick Picture "Poor Dear Margaret Kirby," which is showing again today at the Glendale Theatre.

Elaine Hammerstein is particularly happily cast in the title role, which gives her every opportunity to demonstrate her emotional power.

The story has a strong plot which does not lag for a scene. It concerns a young society matron, who, from being the leader of her set and the envy of all her friends, is thrown on her own resources, and is obliged to take in "paying guests" as a means of earning a livelihood for herself and husband. The latter is a crippled invalid, having been paralyzed through a poison which he had taken with suicidal intent. In spite of the disloyalty of her former friends, she put up a brave fight, and wins the reward of happiness, in the end.

Elaine Hammerstein is splendid in the part of a misunderstood wife. Her dignity and superiority to the biting sarcasm and innuendoes of her "guests," her patience with her suspicious, ungrateful husband, and her innate pride, which prevents her going under beneath the load of her misfortunes, are all excellently portrayed.

Jimmy Aubrey plays the leading role in "The Tourist," one of the funniest comedies yet shown at the Glendale Theatre. It will be on the bill again today, along with "Screen Snaps," a reel which gives film fans an opportunity to meet their favorite stars intimately, and off the stage in the guise of every-day persons.

HAVING FAREWELL RECEPTION TONIGHT

A farewell reception will be given tonight, for Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horning and family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Richardson, 1300 South Central avenue. # MISS M'AVOY, STAR AT PALACE GRAND

When Reartart determined to celebrate their second anniversary with a special production, they combed the industry for someone to fittingly occupy the star part in the story which was written by Hector Turnbull. It was not mere chance that Miss McAvoy was chosen to play the role of the petite French maid, Jeanne Millette, in "A Private Scandal," showing today at the Palace Grand Theatre.

Miss McAvoy had already made a reputation for herself with her marvelous interpretation of Grizel in "Sentimental Tommy" and her fine characterizations in "The Devil's Garden," "Truth About Husbands," "Forbidden Valley" and other pictures.

In "A Private Scandal," Miss McAvoy is called upon to portray a very difficult role, that of an innocent girl upon whom suspicion rests, and who keeps silent through loyalty to the guilty woman who has been her friend and benefactress. Miss McAvoy handles this with consummate art.

With "The Restless Sex" to conclude the performances today at the Palace Grand, Manager Jensen has succeeded in getting together one of the best bill possible to offer. This comedy is a two-reel Christie production and is full of thrills and laughs from start to finish.

Yesterday---

Not many years ago (you can remember) the Drug Store was a little "hole-in-the-wall"—dirty windows, littered with old bottles and containers filled with colored fluids, shelves filled with patent medicines, herbs and roots hung about the walls to dry, and a smell that made you stand in awe and wonder what kind of a magician held sway in this secret abode.

Today---

The Drug Store is a flourishing, efficient business establishment, ministering to the wants of mankind. Clean display windows, changed very often; shelves filled with best medicines and preparations, necessities and articles that add to the comfort and pleasure of life stacked in neat rows on tables. Clerks ever on the watch to fill your most exacting wants, graduate pharmacists for your prescriptions, and a delivery service at your disposal. Why not make use of them?
